

The First Conditional

We use The First Conditional when we talk about things that might happen in the future or about future situations we believe are possible.

The main clause/result

Future will+infinitive modal verb

if unless when

as soon as before

after until

Condition

Present

If you study hard you will get A plus.

I will call you as soon as I arrive.

I will help you unless I finish my project in time.

1. I _____ tonight If _____ my project in time.
2. When she _____ home she _____.
3. I _____ you the answer when I _____ one.
4. I _____ this problem when I _____ home.
5. I _____ unless you _____.
6. If you _____ very careful you _____.
7. I _____ these papers unless you _____ them.
8. If the price _____ affordable I _____ that house.
9. She _____ you as soon as she _____.
10. _____ you switch off the light before you _____?
11. Shelly _____ for help unless it _____ really necessary.
12. My family _____ on holiday when we all _____.
13. I _____ my presentation in time when I _____ enough time.
14. We _____ to the party if our competition _____ at 4 p.m.
15. Our team _____ if we _____ as closeknit team.
16. You _____ the game when you _____ yourself.
17. If we _____ the right path we _____ out of the woods.
18. If he _____ about the job position he _____ to contact you.
19. We were worried because if the taxi _____ in time, we _____ our train
20. As soon as we _____ we _____ to the beach.