

UNIT 3 THE POPULATION OF SPAIN

1. Use these facts to calculate natural growth in Spain in 2012.

■ Births: 455,000

■ Deaths: 403,000

Answer:

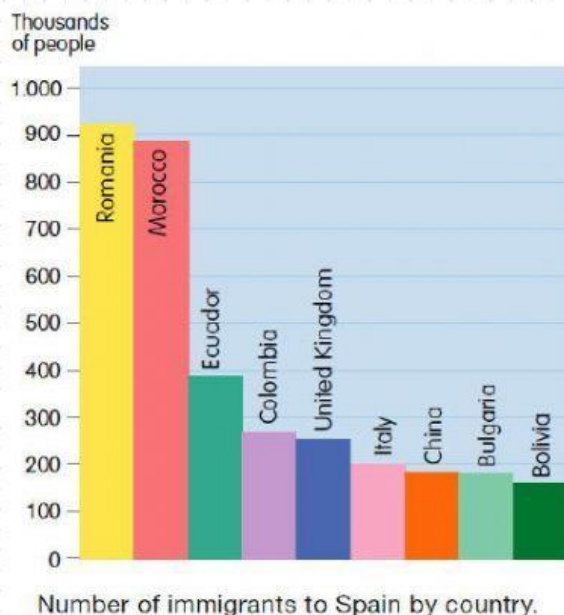

2. Use these facts to calculate net migration in Spain in 2012.

■ Emigrants: 455,000

■ Immigrants: 305,000

Answer:

3. Look at the graph and answer the questions.

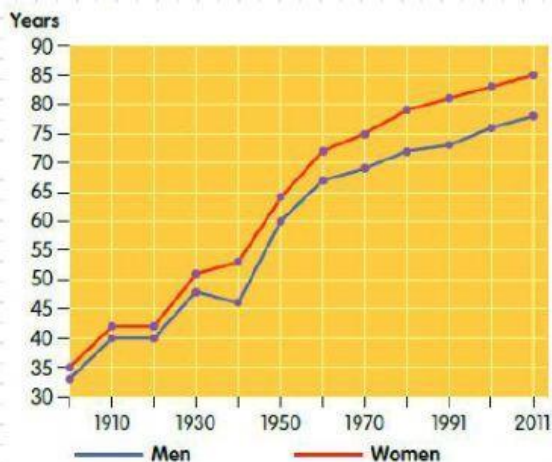

■ Which two countries have the most immigrants in Spain?

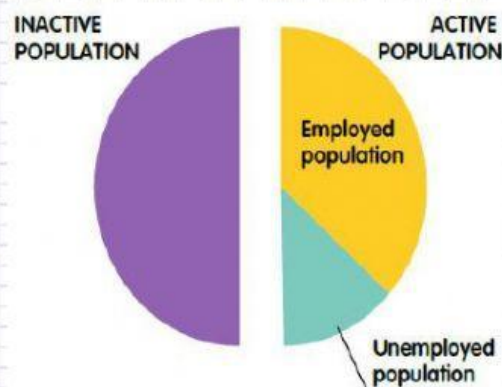

■ Why do you think this is?

4. Look at the diagrams and join the halves to complete the sentences.

Changes in Spanish life expectancy.

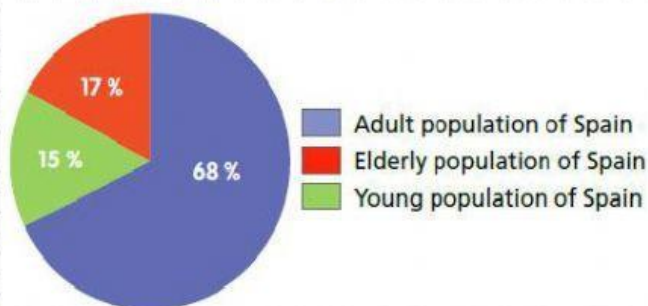

Active and inactive populations of Spain.

1. In 1910, men lived...
2. In 1950, women lived...
3. Life expectancy is ...
4. 50% of Spanish population is ...
5. 15% of Spanish population is ...
6. 25% of Spanish population is ...

- a) ... inactive population.
- b) ... 40 years.
- c) ... employed population.
- d) ... 65 years.
- e) ... unemployed population.
- f) ... higher for women.

5. Look at the pie chart and choose the answer for the questions.

- Which age group is the smallest?

- Which age group is part of the active population?

- Which age groups are parts of the inactive population?

Adult population.

Young population.

Elderly population.

Young population.