1 Places to go

Match the names of places to the pictures.

a bowling alley
an aquarium
a castle
an art gallery
a museum
a theatre
an aqua park
a theme park

1. _____

2. _____

3. _____

4. _____

5. _____

6. _____

7. _____

8. _____

With a partner, think of other places to go for a day out.

Now, read what four different people like to do. Choose the best place for them to go on a day out. There is more than one possible answer for each person.

Camilla: "I enjoy dancing, cooking and fashion. I also like watching drama on TV and will sometimes draw pictures in my notebook. I don't really like going for walks or playing sport." .....

Adam: "I like exercise and doing exciting things, but I'm not very interested in swimming. But I really enjoy any type of game." .....

Sophie: "I like to read a lot about history. I like to visit cities and see interesting places, and I will usually buy souvenirs. But I don't enjoy computer games or watching movies." .....

Sean: "When I was young I went swimming all the time. I still do it today. I'm always happy when I am in the water. I don't really enjoy looking at pictures or old things." .....

LIVEWORKSHEETS

2 Buying tickets at an art gallery

A visitor wants to buy tickets for an exhibition at an art gallery. Listen to the dialogue and fill in the gaps.

Visitor: Good morning.

Assistant: Good morning. How may I help you?

Visitor: We would like to see the _____[1] photography exhibition. How much is it please?

Assistant: It's £7.50 for adults, but children get in free.

Visitor: OK, great. Two adults please.

Assistant: There is also a new exhibition on the second _____[2], would you like tickets for that too?

Visitor: Hmm, what's in that exhibition?

Assistant: Some very _____[3] Japanese paintings from the 18th century.

Visitor: Er, no that's okay thank you, just the tickets for the photography exhibition please.

Assistant: That will be £15 please. Would you like to pay with cash or _____[4]?

Visitor: Cash. Here you are.

Assistant: Thank you. Here are your tickets, and your _____[5]. Would you like a map of the gallery?

Visitor: Yes please. Is it free to get into the _____[6] of the gallery?

Assistant: Yes, it is. It's just the special exhibitions you have to pay for. Please leave your coats and any big bags in the _____[7]. It's just before you go up the stairs on the right.

Visitor: OK, thanks. And the toilets?

Assistant: They're _____[8] the cafe. Enjoy your visit.

Visitor: Thank you. Bye.

LIVEWORKSHEETS