

Adjectives

Adjective Formation

A- Add a prefix to form the opposite of these adjectives.

ADJECTIVE	OPPOSITE	ADJECTIVE	OPPOSITE
possible		credible
legal		able loyal		moral
responsible		sincere
kind		violent

/10

B- Make adjectives from the words in brackets to fill in the gaps.

1. She's a very _____ young woman. (attract)
2. I almost fell asleep. This sofa is really _____. (comfort)
3. I feel _____ because this problem is _____ to solve. (hope, possibility)
4. he is always lying and cheating. He's a thoroughly _____ man. (honest)
5. It was an incredible show, _____ and _____. (magic, colour)
6. I don't know where I put my glasses. My room is really _____.(mess)
7. He was very nice. His attitude was really_____ (friend)
8. She was very _____, in fact _____, and got herself into trouble. (wise, fool)

/8

C – Choose the right adjective.

1. I felt confusing / confused because I didn't know the way to my hotel.
2. The clowns were really amused / amusing in those huge shoes.
3. I was surprised / surprising to learn that he had failed the exam.
4. This trip was a fascinated / fascinating experience,.
5. Ann was frustrated / frustrating to discover that she was the last on the list of applicants for the bursary.
6. I like looking at the sea; it's very relaxing / relaxed.
7. I am interested / interesting in applying for that job.
8. I read the book a second time because it was really interested / interesting.

/8

Answer key

Scanned with CamScanner
LIVEWORKSHEETS