

4th Grade Worksheet

Name: _____ Date: September 30th

Meals of The Day

Objective: To practice how to ask and answer what you eat at the meals of the day.

Let's Practice: Write below the pictures in which meal of the day (breakfast, lunch, dinner or snacks) you can eat the following foods.

Let's Practice: Let's read about John's daily meals.

Hi, my name is John. I have cereal, milk and a banana for breakfast.

I have meat, rice, vegetables and a soda for lunch.

Before dinner, I have an ice cream for snacks.
Then, I have soup and toast for dinner.

Let's Practice: Write the answers with the correct information for the following questions.

Remember!

What do you have for...?	Answer: I have... for...
What does he/she have for...?	Answer: He/she has... for...

1. What does John have for breakfast? Answer:

2. What does John have for breakfast? Answer:

3. What does John have for breakfast? Answer:

4. What does John have for snacks? Answer:

Write T or F (true or false) for the following statements.

1. John has meat for dinner. _____

2. John has fruits for lunch. _____

3. John has soup and rice for dinner. _____

4. John has a banana for breakfast. _____

5. John has orange juice for lunch. _____

6. John has water for breakfast. _____

7. John has cereal and milk for breakfast. _____

8. John has French fries for dinner. _____

9. John has spaghetti for lunch. _____

10. John has a cake for snacks. _____

Write the questions and answers for the following pictures.

Remember! What do you have for...? Answer: I have... for...
What does he/she have for...? Answer: He/she has... for...

Lunch

Question: _____?

Answer: _____

Breakfast

Question: _____?

Answer: _____

Dinner

Question: _____?

Answer: _____

Snack

Question: _____?

Answer: _____