Plant Anatomy

Paragraph 2:

1.Plants have many different parts and each part has its own _____, or job.

Paragraph 3:

2. What are the four basic parts of a plant?

roots	stems	nutrients	flowers	leaves

Paragraph 4:

3. The _____ of a plant are located under ground.

4. They anchor the plant and absorb _____ and _____, or _____ from the soil.

Paragraph 5:

5. Nutrients travel to other parts of the plant by way of the _____.

6. The stem provides support for the roots and is filled with large tubes that carry the life-giving nutrients from the flowers to the stems. True or False

Paragraph 6:

7. Growing out of the same are _____.

8. The _____ are part of the plant that make _____.

9. This food-making process is called _____ and it occurs in all _____ plants

.

Paragraph 7:

10.The _____ is another basic part of many plants.

11.The flower's main function is to make _____ so that hte life cycle of the plant can _____.

LIVEWORKSHEETS