From: Helen
To: Jessica
Subject: Hi!

Hi Jess!

We have got a new house! It's great. It has got six rooms. The kitchen is downstairs. It has a big window and you can see the garden. In the garden there is a small kennel for Toby, my dog. Next to the kitchen is the dining room. My favourite room downstairs is the living room. It's huge and it has got a fireplace.

My bedroom is very big. Everything in my room is blue. I've got a bed, a desk, a chair, a wardrobe and a bookcase. There are posters of my favourite singers on the walls. I haven't got a TV in my bedroom but I've got a CD player and a computer.

Our new house is really great! Come and visit us anytime.
Have to go now. Bye!
Helen
