

Affirmative		Negative		Question
Full form	Short form	Full form	Short form
there is	there's	there is not	there isn't	Is there?
there are	—	there are not	there aren't	Are there?

1. Write the question of these sentences:

- There is a banana in the bowl.
- There are two books on the desk.
- There are six sandwiches in the basket.
- There is an elephant in the zoo.
- There are five kites in the sky.
- There is a rabbit behind the tree.

Is there a banana in the bowl?

2. Choose and write: there is/ there are.

1. There are fifteen children in my class.
2. _____ a girl in front of the house.
3. _____ three mice under your bed.
4. _____ two fish in the bowl.
5. _____ an ice-cream in the fridge.
6. _____ three books on your desk.

3. Choose and write: is/ are.

1. Is there an ice-cream in the fridge?
2.        there five chairs in the class?
3.        there twenty tomatoes on the table?
4.        there a cinema in your city?
5.        there eight eggs in the plate?
6.        there a banana in the bowl?

Raquel González

4. Look, count and write.

1.school

There are three schools.

2.park

3.zoo

4.supermarket

5.library

6.toy shop

7.museum

8.cinema

5. Look at exercise 4. Ask and answer.

1.there/ a library?

Is there a library?

Yes, there is

2. There/ six cinemas?

3. There/ five schools?

4. there/ a zoo?

5. There/ two parks?

6. there/ a theatre?

Raquel González