

1. can be separated using a variety of techniques.
2. involves solvent separation on a solid medium.
3. takes advantage of differences in boiling points.
4. removes a liquid from a solution to leave a solid material.
5. separates solids of different sizes.
6. a material composed of two or more components.
7. can be separated using a variety of techniques.
8. Is evaporation useful to us? Why?
9. a substance (solid) that will not dissolve in a solvent even after mixing
10. Is vinegar soluble or insoluble?