Write the Notes in your Notebook or Exercise Book

Science

Domestic animals

A domestic animal is an animal that is tame (not wild) and kept or cared for by humans.

A domestic animal is one that is sufficiently tame to live with a family, such as a dog or cat, or one that can be used to contribute to a family's support, such as a cow, chicken, or horse.

Domestic animals include cow, sheep, goats, reindeers, camels, horses, pigs, dogs, cats, rabbits, chickens, ducks, geese, turkeys, pigeons, and bees.

Domestic animals are raised for food, work and transport, clothing, medicine, for hunting, as pets, for sport and many other uses. Domestic animals are raised and cared for by humans. Domesticated animals are not wild.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Name five other domestic animal that is not in the list above.

LIVEWORKSHEETS