Drag and drop.

The first time Caesar arrived in Britain		because had too few men.
Caesar had no hope of conquering Britain in 55 BC		his soldiers were at disadvantage.
The storm favored the Britons		the Roman army was not in danger.
When Caesar's ships ran aground in deep water,		the Britons were waiting for him.
When the Britons failed to combine forces,		because the tide grew fast.

LIVEWORKSHEETS