Comparative of adjectives

I. CHOOSE THE CORRECT FORM OF THE COMPARATIVE:

1. John Lennon was (old)

2. Some people think Maths is (easy)

3. Eric is (afraid)

4. Dogs are (intelligent)

5. Cartoons are (good)

6. The Empire State is (big)

 Paris is (small) Belgrade. than Paul McCartney.

than English.

of spiders than his friend Charlie.

than cats.

than music programmes.

than the Chrysler Building.

than London, but (big)

than

II. CHOOSE THE CORRECT FORM OF THE SUPERLATIVE:

1. The mount Everest is the (high)

2. Which is the (dangerous)

3. He is the (lazy)

4. Susan is the (pretty)

5. This is the (interesting)

6. Who is the (rich)

7. Today's weather is the (bad)

8. We had the (good)

9. What is the (favourite)

mountain in the world.

animal in the world?

boy of all.

girl in our class.

book I have ever read.

woman on earth?

this month.

holiday ever.

teacher's song? It's

Adjective	Comparative	Superlative
old	older	the oldest
cold
expensive
easy
good
bad		