READ CAREFULLY

We use may and might to talk about things we aren't sure about in the present or the future. For example:

She MIGHT wear the orange T-shirt tomorrow.

She MIGHT eat a banana.

It MAY rain today, don't forget your umbrella.

Let's Practice!

What might Rose do each month?
Look at the calendar and complete or write sentences using the word MIGHT. Have a look at the example first:

ATTENTION!
