Personality Traits

Choose the word in a, b, or c to complete the sentence.

1. My brother is very _____; he doesn't like to tell anyone about his feelings or opinions.

   a. talkative b. reserved c. gregarious

2. My sister-in-law has some really _____ or strange and unusual ideas.

   a. off-the-wall b. old-fashioned c. friendly

3. My aunt is very _____. She loves to talk about anything and everything with anyone.

   a. talkative b. reserved c. shy

4. My husband is very _____. He works a lot.

   a. off-the-wall b. old-fashioned c. hard-working

LIVEWORKSHEETS

5. When I am not teaching, I don't talk much, I am actually very _____.

   a. quiet b. serious c. sarcastic

6. Someone who is shy and doesn't find it easy to talk to people is called an _____.

   a. Sarcastic b. gregarious c. introvert

7. Grandparents can often be _____ because they feel more comfortable with ideas and traditions from the past.

   a. old-fashioned b. hard-working c. off-the-wall

8. My nephew acts very quiet and thoughtful. He is always _____.

   a. gregarious b. serious c. sarcastic

LIVEWORKSHEETS

9. My uncle often says the opposite of what he means. He's quite _____.

a. gregarious b. reserved c. sarcastic

10. My husband tells me I am a _____ because I always think things are better and more exciting than they really are.

a. serious b. friendly c. romantic

11. Canadians are seen as _____ by the rest of the world because they are helpful and kind.

a. friendly b. romantic c. sarcastic

12. Children are often quite _____ because they feel nervous about meeting and talking to people.

a. shy b. friendly c. hard-working

LIVEWORKSHEETS