

PRONOUNS

1. How people treat us is their / theirs problem, how we react to it is our / ours.
2. A broken friendship can be a comma or a full stop. The choice is your / yours.
3. My / Mine friend starts talking about her / hers problems when I'm telling her about my / mine.
4. Mum often tells me about a friend of her / hers that saved her / hers life. 5. If we help others to achieve their / theirs dreams, we will achieve our / ours.
6. I share everything with my / mine friends, all my happiness and success are their / theirs.

Fill in the suitable form of possessive adjectives or possessive pronouns.

1. My friends enrich life and I hope I enrich .
2. That tongue of is enemy, my friend.
3. Sometimes we think that nobody has problems worse than .
4. Mary understands Nick's point of view and he understands .
5. A true friend reaches for hand and touches heart.
6. She copies the way I dress and wears hair like.
7. We should forgive friends for mistakes and apologise for .
8. He started talking to me about football. He knew it was a huge passion of .

Fill in the gaps with the subject pronouns, object pronouns, possessive pronouns, and possessive adjectives.

Dear James,

Thanks for [redacted] email. It was very nice to have news from [redacted]. I was very happy to hear that you are finally getting married to Maria. It's perfect! I think you will make [redacted] very happy and [redacted] will make you very happy, too.

How did your parents react when you gave [redacted] the news?

Aren't [redacted] excited? I'm sure they are really happy. I'm really looking forward to seeing you all at the wedding.

By the way, do you remember that I wanted a dog? I already have one. It's a really cute little dog that I found in the street. [redacted] name is Max. Sara and I found [redacted] under our car on a really cold winter day and [redacted] decided to adopt that adorable creature right away. We are so happy with [redacted] new pet! Max has quickly become one more member of the family.

Well, I hope to see you soon, James. Please call me if you need any help.

Love,

Samuel.