

I Brushed my Teeth in January

I haven't slept or drunk since June

I've only eaten chocolate twice

I haven't breathed since half past ten

I haven't eaten since December

I have only climbed a mountain once

I got up late on the seventh

I've been waiting for weeks and weeks

Won at the races? I haven't yet

I've been knitting gloves since May

On Sunday I slept very late

I learnt Greek two weeks ago

I brushed my teeth in January

I can't explain the many ways

I haven't had a shower recently

And got to school on the eleventh

But I had two breakfasts in November

I hope to do so very soon

I'm not quite sure what happened then

I did it for eleven months

Once with potatoes and once with rice

And then again in February

But I did in nineteen eighty three

But then again I've never bet

But why I did I do not know

Can't wait till my plant grows up and speaks

I finished a finger yesterday

I got up at twenty five to eight

That I've got lost in the last five days
