

FORMAT

There are parts in IELTS Speaking test.

PART 1. INTRODUCTION & INTERVIEW

The first part involves general introduction. Here, the examiner checks he/she has the right person by checking the candidate's name, origin, and identification.

Then, the examiner asks the candidate questions about familiar topics in life such as home town, family, study, work, leisure activities, interests, etc.

Part 1 of IELTS Speaking lasts for minutes and the test takers will be asked questions at most. This part of the test focuses on the ability to communicate opinions and information on everyday topics and common situations by answering a range of questions.

Sample questions:

- Where are you from?
- What do you like most about your city?
- How much time do you usually spend with your friends?
- What subjects do you study?
- Have you ever travelled abroad?

PART 2. INDIVIDUAL LONG TURN

Part 2 is the individual long turn. The examiner gives the test takers a which asks the test takers to talk about a particular topic, includes points to cover in their talk and instructs the test takers to explain one aspect of the topic.

Test takers are given minute to prepare their talk, and are given a pencil and paper to make notes. The examiner asks the test takers to talk for minutes, stops the test takers after 2 minutes, and asks one or two questions on the same topic.

Sample questions:

Describe a time of the day that you like.

You should say:

- what time of day it is?
- what you do at that time?
- who are you usually with?
- and explain, why you like it?

This part of the test focuses on the ability to speak at length on a given topic, using appropriate language and organizing ideas coherently. Some common topics are people, places, objects, events in the past, etc.

PART 3. DISCUSSION

In Part 3, the examiner and the test takers discuss issues related to the topic in Part 2. Part 3 lasts minutes and the candidate will be asked questions. This part of the test focuses on the ability to express and justify opinions and to analyze, discuss and speculate about issues.

Common question types that appear in IELTS speaking part 3 are opinion, evaluation, future, cause and effect, comparison and contrast, past and now, etc.

Sample questions:

1.
2.
3.
4.

COMMON MISTAKES

MISTAKE 1.

Example:

Examiner: What do you find most difficult in your studies?
Bad sample answer: English.	Good sample answer: Well, I would say, English. It's really hard for me to remember new words and I am too shy to speak out in class. It has always been difficult for me to communicate in English while my classmates are doing a lot better.

MISTAKE 2.

You cannot get more than IELTS band 5 if you hesitate for an uncomfortable length of time while speaking (about 5 seconds). If you do not know how to express your ideas in English or you don't listen to the questions clearly, don't keep silent. Instead, you can ask the examiners repeat or clarify the questions by saying:

MISTAKE 3.

Many candidate attending an IELTS interview are worried very much about making mistakes in their grammar, so they cannot communicate effectively though the examiner expect some mistakes as English is their foreign language and people naturally makes mistakes or errors.

HANDOUT 2: Good and bad answers

Work in pairs or small groups. Look at the answers to typical questions from Part 1 of the Speaking Test. Which answers (a, b or c) are best? Why?

1. Do you come from a small family or a large family?

- a. Large. There are my parents, me, and my 2 brothers and 2 sisters.
- b. Large.
- c. Large. There's my mother, Anna. She's a teacher. My father, Paul, is an engineer. I have 2 older brothers, Phil and Dave. They're at university. And then my 2 younger sisters, Chris and Helen. They're still at school.

2. What is the area like where you live?

- a. It's boring. There isn't anything to do. There are no shops, or parks, or cinemas, or restaurants, or discos or sports centres.
- b. It's boring.
- c. It's quite boring. There isn't much to do – no shops or cinemas or anything.

3. What do you find most difficult about learning English?

- a. The grammar, especially the tenses. Sometimes I don't know the right one to use.

- b. The grammar. The tenses are very difficult and I don't know when to use the present perfect or the past tense or when to use the continuous or simple, or when to use 'will'.
Very difficult.
- c. The grammar.
