

Sentences with direct and indirect objects

1 Are the words in bold subjects, direct objects or indirect objects?

1. She sent her friend an email. _____
2. Sally will help you with your housework. _____
3. Where did you put the keys? _____
4. He gave them a bag full of money. _____
5. Alice wrote a book on the French revolution. _____
6. I need your help. _____
7. He offered her a flower. _____
8. My father bought us a new TV set. _____
9. John sold me his car. _____
10. I wish you good luck _____

2 Write complete sentences with the prompts.

I / parcel/ the / her / brought _____.

We / will write / John/ a letter _____.

I/ can lend/ book/ her / the _____.

They / bought / daughter / new/ a / flat / their _____.

I/ Mary / sent / postcard/ yesterday / the _____.

3 Find the mistake in each sentence of the conversation and rewrite the word correctly.

A: Hey. I sent your an e-mail and you didn't answer.

B: E-mail? What e-mail? You didn't send my an e-mail.

A: Come on! You got it. Then me sent you a text message.

B: Text message? What text message? You didn't send mine a text message, either. Honest!

A: Ok, well, you've got no excuses now. Where is the $15 you owe I ?

B: $15? What $15?