Holiday Blues!

James had a bad year; 1) after he lost his job in the spring. He was exhausted 2) physically mentally and he needed a break. 3) the fact that he was going alone, he was looking forward to his holiday. He had booked a hotel at a quiet resort by the sea 4) he wanted to relax; 5), he couldn't stand crowded tourist resorts. It was supposed to be the holiday of a lifetime. 6), that wasn't to be the case. 7) was his flight delayed for seven hours,, when he arrived at the hotel, his room had been double booked. 8) they were to blame, the hotel owners offered him alternative accommodation. 9), the other hotel was in a noisy resort. 10) he wasn't happy with the arrangement, he eventually had to accept their offer.

A Healthy Start to the Day!

Do you usually rush out of the house each morning without eating breakfast? If you do, then you need to change your eating habits! Why? Well, breakfast is the most important meal of the day.

1) , your body has gone without food for 8–10 hours while you were sleeping so 2) function properly it needs a fresh source of energy. Eating breakfast will make you feel much more energetic in the morning. Studies have found that teens that eat breakfast perform better in the classroom than those who skip it. 3) , they are more creative, have better problem-solving skills and can concentrate longer. 4) , these students tend to get higher marks in exams.

5) to these benefits, studies have found that people who eat breakfast are less likely to suffer from obesity. Eating breakfast means that you are less likely to feel hungry later in the day and therefore less likely to overeat at lunch and dinner. 6) , eating breakfast is vital to maintaining good health. 7) it might involve getting up a little earlier than usual, we should all make the effort to eat something in the morning.
