

Self-assessment: Giving advice with imperatives and should

There is a mistake in each exercise.
Rewrite the exercise correctly.
Use contractions when it is possible.

Important advice to improve your grades at university

1 You should don't miss classes to avoid getting knowledge gaps that will never be refilled.

2 To be always on time so you know the whole information indicated by the teacher each class.

3 A student shoulds participate actively in classes by answering questions, giving opinion and asking questions.

4 Using a calendar to remember all your deadlines and hand in your essays on time.

5 Creates a designated workspace with good lighting and ventilation in addition to a comfortable chair and desk.

6 You should to organize your digital files for an easy access to your recorded information.

7 A student should haves enough pens, highlighters, erasers, sharpeners, notebooks and markers to be ready to make notes and mind maps.

8 Do you should have a messy desk? Of course not. Clear your workspace because a tidy space creates a tidy mind.

9 Not turn on your smartphone in classes to stay away from distractions.

10 Studied in small groups to have the opportunity to learn from each other.

11 You should make to sure to eat a balanced diet with plenty of fresh fruit and vegetables to have the energy to cope with all your duties.

12 What you think students should do to improve their learning skills? Students should exercise regularly to have better concentration and memory.