Read the general information about an American behavior and insert the words into the gaps in the text

American behavior in society in some situations is ---------- . It is not customary for them to touch each other in public (especially men). Women also do not walk arm in arm ---------- . When communicating, not all topics are ---------- to judgment. So, for example, you shouldn't say about the ---------- of the interlocutor, about his political and religious ---------- , age and condition of health. The question of whether the interlocutor has family and children is also ---------- . While eating, Americans hold a fork in their ---------- hand, changing it to a ----------, as needed. That makes them ---------- from ----------. In the process of eating an American can drink ----------, while in other countries coffee is usually drunk ---------- eating. ---------- for Americans is on the first place, it takes up the bulk of the time, not ----------. They have a very high ----------of living and ---------- of everyday life.

Europeans | after | different

strength | knife | together

work | standard | right

income | technology

curious

views | coffee

unethical

subject

LIVEWORKSHEETS