

Reading: 4

Number the paragraphs.

1. What can cause tsunamis?
2. Which states are at risk of tsunamis?
3. What does tsunami mean?
4. How high can waves be?
5. How fast can tsunami waves travel?

Tsunamis

- | | |
|---|---|
| <input type="checkbox"/> Tsunami is a Japanese word that means "harbor wave." A tsunami is a devastating natural disaster. | <input type="checkbox"/> Waves from a tsunami can travel through the water as fast as 800 kilometers per hour. |
| <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Erupting volcanoes can cause tsunamis. A tsunami begins as an underwater earthquake. The force of the earth moving causes the water to move and produce huge waves. | <input type="checkbox"/> These waves can often be as high as 30 meters. |
| | <input type="checkbox"/> The states that should worry about possible tsunamis include Hawaii, Alaska, California, Oregon, and Washington. |

► Answer the questions above.

1. Erupting volcanoes can cause tsunamis.
2. _____
3. _____
4. _____
5. _____