The book review

An interesting story to read. The story tells us about one of the best ways to test the humbleness and politeness of a person. The story is about Tuan Yusuf, a rich farmer who invited the poor children to his house everyday to collect some buns for themselves and their family. This is because for a long time the village had dried up and there is no more paddy to eat. One day, Salbiah, one of the poor children who is an honest girl willing to return the money that she had found in the bun to Tuan Yusuf. In return, Tuan Yusuf gave her some money and she lived happily with her family.
