

PLACE OF ADVERBS

A. There are some types of adverbs:

Type	They tell us	Example
Manner	How	Slowly, suddenly, carefully…..
Place	Where	Here, there, upstairs, outside….
Time	When	Now, then, yesterday….
Frequency	How often	Sometimes, always, never….
Degree	How much	Very, quite, almost….

B. There are three some main positions for adverbs; Front –beginning of a sentence; mid – after the first auxiliary, end- at the end of a sentence.

- Adverbs of manner can go in the mid or end position.
- Adverbs of place and time, usually go in end position.
- Adverbs of frequency generally go in the mid position.
- Most adverbs of degree go in mid position.
- Others go at the end of a sentence when they describe a verb: much, lot, a little, terribly….

Exercises:

1. Insert the appropriate adverb in the sentence:

Really	quickly	outside	never	quite	tomorrow	luckily
Usually	ever	three times a week	perfectly well

a) Today I feel _____ ill.

b) _____ the glass didn't break.

c) You should _____misbehave.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

d) I must finish my homework _____.

e) Do you want to go to the cinema _____?

f) Peter ran _____ when the fire broke out.

g) It _____ rains when I wash my car.

h) I practise fitness training _____.

i) Have you _____ gone to Italy before?

j) You know _____ what I think about your boyfriend.

k) I've _____ enjoyed all the story lessons.

2. Complete the sentences. Put the words (on the right) in the best order.

a) She just sat .....

b) We have visited the fair .....

c) Albert went .....

d) I like England.....

e) I spent a month .....

f) You can park your car .....

By the river all day

Two years ago

to México very much

in August there

in the garden

peacefully

regularly since 1996

LIVEWORKSHEETS