

New York City

New York city is a in the United States of America (USA). It is on the East coast. It is next to the Atlantic . About 8.400.000 people live there. People English.

Times Square

Times square is intersection in the city . It is the most visited tourist site in the . It has a lot of shops and advertisements (publicity) with .

Statue of Liberty

The statue was a to America from France in 1886. The statue represents and it is a of welcoming immigrants to America.

Central Park

Central park is a large in the middle of NYC. The park has several playgrounds, baseball fields and even a .

The Empire State Building

The Empire State is a building (skyscraper), it's 381 metres high. It was the world's tallest until 1972. Tourists can go to the top to see the views and take .

New York City Questions

ACTIVITY 1. Write True or False.

New York is not a city of the United States. True False

There are a lot of advertisements in Times Square. True False

The Statue of Liberty was a present from an European country. T F

Central Park is the smallest park of the city. True False

Skyscrapers are small buildings. True False

ACTIVITY 2. Match.

USA

Skyscraper

Taxi

Central Park

New York city

- A way of transport
- An important American city
- A country in America
- A very high/tall building
- A place where you can play, run or walk

