

Second Conditional

Sentence Transformations

Here are some sentences about travel and tourism. For each question, complete the second sentence so that it means the same as the first. Use no more than three words. Look at the example.

1. There aren't any restaurants nearby so we have to eat in the hotel.

If there were some restaurants nearby, we wouldn't have to eat in the hotel.

2. I have to work so I won't travel the world.

I would travel the world if I _____ to work.

3. She won't travel to France since her French is not good.

She _____ to France if she spoke better French.

4. I don't have my passport so I can't travel abroad right now.

I would travel abroad if I _____ my passport.

5. You can't see much of the city because you're not taking the tour.

You _____ more of the city if you took a tour.

6. The souvenirs are expensive so I won't buy them.

I would buy more souvenirs if they _____ so expensive.

7. This hotel is excellent which is why I stay in it.

I _____ in this hotel if it weren't excellent.

8. This restaurant doesn't have 5 stars because of its chef.

This restaurant _____ 5 stars if it weren't for its chef.

9. It's hurricane season so I'm not going to Miami.

If weren't hurricane season, I _____ to Miami.

