Building sentences!

The girl	is	happy

SUBJECT	VERB	COMPLEMENT

Remember that we are learning to build sentences. The sentences are formed basically with three elements: SUBJECT (someone or something) + VERB (action or state) + COMPLEMENT (additional information).

Recuerda que estamos aprendiendo a construir oraciones. Las oraciones se componen básicamente de tres elementos SUJETO (alguien o algo) + VERBO (acción o estado) + COMPLEMENTO (información adicional).

HALLOWEEN TRADITIONS

3. Read and drag the name of the Halloween tradition to the right text:

are hollowed out pumpkins with a face cut in one side and a candle put inside. In the old days people lit fires to scare away bad spirits. They believed light had power over darkness. Today Jack-o-lanterns are supposed to frighten away ghosts and witches.

Apple Bobbing

Dressing up

Trick or Treat

Jack-o-lanterns

One Halloween party game is called 'bobbing for apples'. Apples are put in a big bowl full of water. The players, sometimes blindfolded must take an apple out of the water without using their hands.

On Halloween, when it was believed that bad spirits came back to the earthly world, people thought they would meet ghosts if they left their homes. To avoid being recognized by ghosts people would wear masks when they left homes after dark so that the ghosts would mistake them for fellow spirits. That's why Halloween costumes are traditionally monsters such as vampires, ghosts, witches and devils.

Children in costumes go from house to house in their neighbourhood, often in small groups, in order to ask for treats such as sweets, lollipops, chocolates or money. When someone answers the door, the children say: 'Trick or treat?' The 'trick' is a threat to perform mischief on the homeowners or their property if no treat is given.

4. Identify the SUBJECT, the VERB and the COMPLEMENT of the following sentences and drag them to the right place:

	go	from house to house	children in costumes

	they	on the door	knock
SUBJECT	VERB	COMPLEMENT

	opens	someone	the door
SUBJECT	VERB	COMPLEMENT

	ask for	treats such as sweets or lollipops	children

	"trick or treat"	they	say

	the homeowners	treats to the children	give

Choose the picture with the Halloween Tradition that is explained in the sentences above.

5. Play the video again, practice the pronunciation of the lyrics and record your voice:

I like Halloween
Hey hey hey
Dance like a skeleton
Dance all night long
