We use has when we talk about one person, place, animal or thing. We use have when we talk about more than one person, place, animal or thing. However, we use have with I when we talk about ourselves.

EXAMPLES: Syahril has five pencils. I have many books.

K. Fill in the blanks with has or have.

1. This park has many swings.
2. The lion _____ a thick mane.
3. Some birds _____ colourful feathers.
4. A tree _____ many branches.
5. Roses _____ a sweet smell.
6. "I _____ a long tail," said the monkey.
7. Patricia _____ lost her bag.
8. _____ you brought your lunch?

LIVEWORKSHEETS