Exercise 3: Read the information. Then choose the correct answers to complete the conversation.

The words already, yet and just have slightly different meanings.

- already = before now, or before a particular time in the past

Example:

I've already done it.

= I did it in the past so I don't need/plan to do it again.

- yet = before now or before that time

Example:

I haven't done it yet.

= I didn't do it in the past so I still need/plan to do it in the future.

- just = a very short time ago

Example:

I've just done it.

= I did it very recently (e.g. in the last few minutes).

A: Hey, I've already/just/yet remembered. We need to hand in our essays tomorrow. Have you started writing yours just/yet?

B: Actually, I've just/yet started. I started planning it half an hour ago. But I haven't written anything already/just/yet. I'm still thinking about what to write. What about you?
