

Book test: THERE IS A BOY IN THE GIRLS' BATHROOM

1) Which of the following statements best sums up the theme of this book?

- A) No one ever really changes.
- B) Sometimes a person has to fight.
- C) Parents always know best.
- D) Everyone has good in himself or herself.

2) What did Bradley do to his book report?

- A) He hid it at home so nobody could read it.
- B) He asked Jeff for help.
- C) He tore it to pieces.
- D) His sister Claudia wrote it for him.

3) How did Bradley's book report eventually get turned in?

- A) Jeff did it and turned it in for Bradley.
- B) Melinda turned it in for Bradley.
- C) It never got turned in.
- D) Carla turned it in.

4) How were Bradley and Jeff alike?

- A) Carla gave them both a book.
- B) Both got hit by Melinda and both wanted to make new friends.
- C) Both said hello to people without thinking.
- D) Both have lived in Washington, DC.

5) This book focused mainly on the thoughts, feelings and actions of ...

- A) Bradley Chalkers.
- B) Jeff Fishkin.
- C) Melinda Birch.
- D) Carla Davis.

6) What is a fact about Jeff?

- A) He was from Washington, DC and liked to play basketball.
- B) He did not behave well at the party.
- C) He cared too much about money.
- D) He was more imaginative than Bradley.

7) Jeff always had an excuse when Bradley tried to get him to go into the girl's bathroom. What could the reader conclude from this?

- A) Jeff was a busy boy.
- B) Jeff did not want to fight.
- C) Bradley didn't care.
- D) Jeff was afraid of Melinda.

8) What is Colleen's struggle?

- A) She struggles over inviting Jeff to her birthday party.

- B) The other girls are mean to her.
- C) Her parents are forcing her to see Carla for counseling.
- D) She is afraid of not doing well at school.

9) Choose the best words to describe Carla

- A) Tidy and lazy.
- B) Messy and harsh.
- C) Optimistic and caring.
- D) Cheerful and overwhelming.

10) Why did Carla leave the school?

- A) She retired.
- B) The principal hired a new counselor.
- C) She was tired of her job.
- D) Parents complained about her counseling techniques.