

Questions 1–7

Circle the letter of the underlined part of the sentence that is incorrect.

1. Although he has written<sup>A</sup> several plays and poems, John Ashbery is best known<sup>B</sup> for him<sup>C</sup> work in the area<sup>D</sup> of art criticism.
2. In the late spring, the honeysuckle<sup>A</sup>, with its<sup>B</sup> delicate yellow blossoms, fills<sup>C</sup> the air with a aroma<sup>D</sup> resembling that of honey.
3. Kites<sup>A</sup> vary in size, shape, and weight<sup>B</sup>, according to the<sup>C</sup> fancy of its<sup>D</sup> creators.
4. The most<sup>A</sup> visible changes physical<sup>B</sup> of aging take place<sup>C</sup> in the skin<sup>D</sup>.
5. The<sup>A</sup> Richter scale provides a fairly accurate<sup>B</sup> measurements<sup>C</sup> of seismic disturbances<sup>D</sup>.
6. Analysis of the small number<sup>A</sup> of known native language families in eastern North America demonstrates<sup>B</sup> that they<sup>C</sup> are no more than five thousands<sup>D</sup> years old.
7. There is fewer<sup>A</sup> oxygen available in the<sup>B</sup> atmosphere of Jupiter than there is on<sup>C</sup> earth<sup>D</sup>.Ⓢ

Questions 8–11

Circle the letter of the one word or phrase that best completes each sentence.

- |  |   |
|--|---|
| 8. _____ can result from damage to DNA molecules.(A) Cells mutate(B) Cell mutation(C) While cells mutate(D) During cell mutation                                      | 9. New York ironweed, with its small, dark purple thistle flowers, sometimes _____ to a height of eight feet.(A) grows(B) growing(C) it grows(D) up  |
| 10. _____ is susceptible to subtle political changes is well known.(A) That the stock market(B) What the stock market(C) Because the stock market(D) The stock market | 11. Phillis Wheatley, whose first book of poems was published when she was only nineteen years old, _____ the object of public attention because she was a black slave.(A) who was(B) being(C) as(D) was |