

In a Persian Market, by Ketilbey

In this passage, the composer takes us to a busy market place in a country of deserts, palm trees and oasis.

Each character in the story is represented by a different piece of music. Listen to the music and when the video ends, match each character with the melody.

