

THE ORGANISATION OF LIVING THINGS

WORKSHEET 1.1

1. In pairs, take turns to say true or false. Say why the false ones are false.

a) There are four shapes of cells: spherical, tubular, spiral or moon-shaped.

b) Cells are the biggest units of life. _____

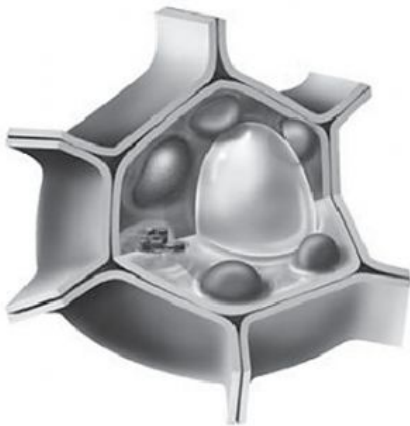

c) Cells reproduce by dividing into two cells. _____

d) Plant cells and human cells are exactly the same. _____

e) Bacteria is a multicellular organism. _____

f) Animals cells have a rigid cell wall. _____

2. Write the cell parts in the boxes and draw arrows to the picture.

3. In pairs, say the sentences and then unscramble them.

a) Chlorophyll substance contain chloroplasts a called _____

b) Is photosynthesis out in chlorophyll used _____

c) Stored vacuole water the and in food _____

d) The rigid vacuole when the water fills with plant becomes

THE ORGANISATION OF LIVING THINGS

SUPPORT WORKSHEET 1.1

1. Read, then copy the sentence.

All living things have three basic life processes. They are interaction, nutrition and reproduction.

2. Match the sentences then copy them on the lines below.

All living things interact with the world around them...

... in the process of reproduction.

All living things take in nutrients from their environment...

... in the process of interaction.

All living things create new things that are like them...

... in the process of nutrition.

1. _____

2. _____

3. _____
