Jamie's Pizzeria

0. C) What Jamie is famous for

British celebrity chef Jamie Oliver began his journey to international fame in 1999 when he debuted as "The Naked Chef" on BBC Television. Oliver is known for his passion for healthy cooking, the way he handles ingredients and his little victory dance when seeing an especially nice tomato or smelling a batch of fresh basil.

"Jamie's Italian" restaurants were founded by the healthy-cooking advocate and his Italian mentor, chef Gennaro Contaldo, in Oxford, UK, in 2008. Since then the chain has grown to more than 60 worldwide. Pizzerias operating under the Oliver brand name have opened in the United Kingdom and India, but they work independently without being part of a complex franchise.

2.

On December 12, 2017, Oliver launched a new pizzeria in Budapest's bustling Gozsdu Udvar, the first unit of his international pizza chain planned for Continental Europe. His new Budapest eatery, Jamie's Pizzeria Gozsdu, as the first of this chain, is set to feature a firm business model and a unified concept within its category. Jamie's Pizzeria Gozsdu specialises in freshly baked, hand-stretched, sourdough-crust pizza topped with traditional Italian ingredients.

3.

The ingredients are strictly selected at his establishments and are all fresh. Animal welfare is a basic requirement and the meat comes from free-range animals. Fruits and vegetables are sourced from sustainable farms. They all need to pass Oliver's internal rating system, the JOSIE scale (Jamie Oliver Supplier Information Exchange). The ingredients are pure and GMO-free.

4.

To ensure consistently high quality, some ingredients are the same in all of the chef's eateries around the world, including Levoni ham, "00" flour (an Italian grading), olive oil, olives and Parmigiano-Reggiano cheese. The pizzeria also uses products from Hungarian suppliers.

5.

The menu at Jamie's Pizzeria Gozsdu features 32-centimetre, thin-and-crispy-crust pizzas, an assortment of oven-baked pasta specialties, a wide range of Mediterranean salads catering to all diets and tastes, with accompanying quality Hungarian wines and craft beers to enhance the occasion. Jamie's Pizzeria Gozsdu also started online ordering and home delivery.

Dear Harold Bloom,

I am writing to apply for the Restaurant Manager position at Happy Canteen. I have more than 15 years of experience working in the catering industry and 6 years in a managerial role. My professional expertise aligns perfectly with the goals of this position in your already very popular establishment.

In my role as a Restaurant Manager for Marlene Café and Bar, I proved to be an efficient, devoted and strong leader. My value was demonstrated after training the entire opening staff in preparation for the restaurant's grand opening. Not only did we meet our sales goal each month for the first year of operation, the down payment for the property was paid back in the first six months.

Happy Canteen would benefit from my skills in the following areas:

- A keen eye for excellence and high standards
- A strong work ethic and proven leadership skills
- A motivating attitude even under pressure

I believe that Happy Canteen will be a great success for many years to come, especially because of your ambitious plans to expand and become a franchise network. My extensive expertise in establishing a brand would be a valuable asset at this early planning stage. Along with offering my professional advice during this crucial process, it would be a good opportunity for me to get a perfect feel for the quality and expectations of this establishment.

It would be a privilege to discuss your Restaurant Manager position in more detail. I would be happy to come by whenever it is most convenient for you. Thank you for your time, and I look forward to hearing from you.

Sincerely,
Nathaniel Gray
