

In/On/At/-

Fill in the blanks with a suitable preposition ("at", "on" or "in") if necessary, sometimes no preposition is needed. If no preposition is needed, write -.

1. We were _____ the concert yesterday night and the guitarist played really well.
2. Linda had to stay _____ the office because she had a lot of work to do.
3. Bill is _____ hospital. Yesterday we visited him.
4. Little Jim found something in/on the sand _____ the beach last Sunday.
5. Mark and Tom robbed a bank and had to be _____ prison for over ten years.
6. When David was waiting _____ the bus stop the wind started to blow very hard.
7. Alan was washing the dishes _____ the kitchen when his wife came back home from the shops.
8. When George was a little child he got very frightened _____ night when there was a storm.
9. Harry ate a whole box of doughnuts while he was watching the film _____ the living room.
10. Last week mum caught the flu and had to stay _____ bed for three days.
11. Mary cleaned all the windows in her house and was exhausted when she finished. She had to sit down _____ her armchair for a while. I was sitting beside her _____ the chair.
12. There is somebody _____ the door.
13. I saw Mr. Black _____ the bus stop.
14. Our flat is _____ the second floor. She cleans it _____ every Saturday.
15. We swim _____ the sea every summer.
16. There is nobody_____ home. Come to us _____ next Sunday.
17. There is a market _____ the end of the street.
18. My grandparents live _____ the city center, I live _____ the outskirts and my parents live _____ the suburbs.

LIVEWORKSHEETS