

Listen again and choose the best form to complete the sentences.

1. When we cut down trees and burn oil and coal, carbon dioxide levels in the atmosphere rise / will rise.
2. And when there are high levels of carbon dioxide in the atmosphere, temperatures increase / will increase.
3. When temperatures increase, there are / will be more storms and extreme weather events.
4. And as the earth gets hotter, the ice caps at the poles melt / will melt and sea levels rise / will rise.
5. If we continue to cut down forests and burn oil and coal, temperatures rise / will rise by 3 to 5 degrees before the end of this century.
6. Scientists predict that if the world's temperature increases by more than 1.5 degrees, many people die / will die in extreme weather events and lots of big cities are / will be underwater.
7. If we stop burning oil and coal, these problems don't get / won't get worse.
8. And if we plant more trees, they take up / will take up some of the extra carbon dioxide in the atmosphere.