Working at the café was not easy but he did not quit. Mark was determined to buy the camera. Mark had to work in the cafe for two months before he had enough money to buy the camera.

When Mark finally had enough money, he asked for Abdul's help to buy the camera online. Mark had never bought anything online before and so he was feeling a bit nervous. 30 ☐

Abdul had previously bought a few things online. The boys first checked a few online shops to see where the best deals were. They finally decided on a popular online shop. Not only was the camera cheaper than the other shops, they were also providing free shipping and a camera bag.

He again felt nervous as he keyed in his personal details and payment information. He worried that something would go wrong. However, everything went smoothly. He was informed that he would get his camera in two weeks' time. Mark could not wait for his new camera to arrive. He thanked Abdul for his help.

For the next two weeks, Mark eagerly waited for his camera to arrive. Then, as promised by the online shop, the camera arrived two weeks later. Mark called Abdul over when the parcel arrived. They opened the parcel together excitedly. Mark and Abdul both checked the camera thoroughly. 32 ☐

Mark sighed in relief. Mark then wrote a good review for the online shop. He was glad that he had bought his camera online.
