

Chapter 12, 13 and 14 ( Form 4)

Pn Maslinda

EclipseCrossword.com

Across

1. sensory receptor of the eyes that detect changes in light intensity
6. produce by mammary glands to stimulates lactation
9. disorder that occurs during brain development and difficulties with verbal communication.
11. A process maintaining all physical and chemical factors in the internal environment within the normal range so that all cells function efficiently at an optimum level
13. occur on the day 14
15. Found in the central nervous system. It cell body located at the centre.

16. coordinates movements and controls balance and posture

Down

2. Also known as moulting process that involves the shedding of the old exoskeleton and replaced by the larger soft layer which eventually becomes hard
3. process of maintaining salt and water balance of body fluid
4. .... is a change in the environment that causes an organism to react.
5. Function to stimulate the thickening of endometrium
7. Mitochondria and vesicles containing ..... that are found abundance in the synaptic knob.

Chapter 12, 13 and 14 ( Form 4)

Pn Maslinda

Down

8. hormone that produce by B-cells in the islets of langerhands to drop the glucose level
10. major organ of the urinary system
12. located at the male reproductive system that function to protect the testis
14. Gland that produce adrenaline hormone.