

VICERRECTORADO ACADEMICO 2021-2022

1.- Write the correct number according to the order of the story

She watered each one.
 "That's going to be a lot of zucchinis," said her father.
 "We'll eat it!" Zora promised.

Zora and her sister posted them
 all over the neighborhood.

Zora straightened her sign. She checked the time. The sun got hotter. Zora's feet got fidgetier, and she began to worry

The next day, Zora found even more zucchinis.
 "Seriously?" she said.
 Zora thought and thought. She had an idea,
 but she knew she couldn't do it alone.

"Hi, Mrs. Thompson! Would you like to trade some tomatoes for some zucchinis?" Zora asked.

Just like the day before, and the day before that.

"Look what I found!" Zora announced. "Zucchini!
 I'm going to plant these in our garden."

Neighbors stopped by with carrots, peppers, and green beans from their gardens. They shared plums, apricots, and cherries from their trees.

