Eating in Class

A: I am so hungry.

B: I am hungry too.

A: How many more minutes until lunch?

B: Thirty more minutes.

A: That is too long.

B: I know, I hear your stomach growling.

A: Do you have any food in your backpack?

B: I have a bag of chips.

A: Can I have some?

B: Maybe next time.

A: Wait, why not now?

B: Because I'm going to eat the chips.

Choosing Partners

A: Did you get a partner for the geometry project?

B: I am still looking around.

A: Do you want me to be your partner?

B: I am sorry, but I don't.

A: What is wrong with me?

B: You're known as someone who is very lazy.

A: That is so not true.

B: Well, it's what I heard from our classmates.

A: You can't always trust people.

B: You do make a good point.

A: Give me a chance, and I won't let you down.

B: Okay, I trust you.

Living in the Dorms

A: Do you live in the dorms?

B: Yes, I do.

A: What do you like about it?

B: I get to see my friends almost all the time.

A: What else?

B: I don't have to see my parents.

A: How much does it cost to dorm?

B: It is very expensive.

A: Tell me exactly how much.

B: You're going to faint after I tell you.

A: Just tell me.

B: It costs $15,000 per year.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Popularity

A: I wish I was a cheerleader.

B: Why do you want to be one?

A: Cheerleaders are popular.

B: Popularity is not important.

A: If you're popular, everyone knows you.

B: I think you have been watching too many movies.

A: No, I have not.

B: You can be popular in other ways.

A: What other ways?

B: You could just be nice to people.

A: That is so hard.

B: This is why you are not popular.

The Vending Machine

A: The lunch menu is so bad today.

B: What is the cafeteria serving?

A: Leftover meatloaf and brussel sprouts.

B: That is disgusting.

A: I'm thinking of buying something from the vending machine.

B: I wouldn't do that if I were you.

A: What's wrong with the vending machine?

B: It steals your money.

A: Vending machines can't steal.

B: Yesterday, I inserted a dollar and no food came out.

A: I think I'll just go to the cafeteria.

B: Meatloaf and brussel sprouts sounds good right now, right?

Class Presentation

A: I am so nervous for the class presentation

B: Don't be. You're so smart.

A: I know, but I don't like a big audience.

B: Do you want my advice?

A: Of course, I do.

B: Imagine the audience in their underwear.

A: That is insane!

B: It really works.

A: Have you tried it?

B: Yes. I got an A on my presentation.

A: I'll try it then.

B: You can do it!

Show and Tell

A: Tomorrow is show and tell.

B: Yeah, I know.

A: I am bringing my new purse for show and tell.

B: Purses are boring.

A: No, they're not!

B: Well, I'm bringing my dog.

A: You can't bring dogs to school.

B: No one has to know until tomorrow.

A: You are going to get into so much trouble.

B: But I'll be the coolest kid in school.

A: You won't be saying that in jail.

B: I am not falling for that.
