

Leave before the lights come on by Arctic monkeys

Well this is a good ,
He wouldn't do it if it ,
He wouldn't do it if it one.
Well my friend you,
Oh what a way it all,
You said, "They're always words to hear."

And they together not quite how,
stretching and yawning,
It's always in the morning

And I that's the price you pay,
Well oh it isn't what it ,
She's thinking he looks today,
And now there's nothing left now,

They before the lights on,
Because they didn't want to ,
What it was that was ,
Before they had to,
And how can you ,
With someone you don't ?
And not feel slightly by it,
Oh, he had a ,

And they together not quite how,
stretching and yawning,
It's always in the morning

And I that's the price you pay,
Well oh it isn't what it ,
She's thinking he looks today,

Well, quick, let's leave, before the lights come on,
'Cause then you don't have to see,
'Cause then you don't have to see,
What you've done...

Well, , let's leave, before the lights come on,
'Cause then you don't have to ,
'Cause then you don't have to ,
What ...

I'll you out, what time's the bus come? (x4)
