Story Time

A story has characters, a setting (where and when the story takes place), and a plot (the events that happen in a story). The main story character often faces a problem which is introduced at the beginning of a story, developed in the middle, and solved at the end.

Develop your own story about the picture. First, answer the questions.

1. What or who is the story about? _____

_____

_____

2. Where and when does it take place? _____

_____

_____

3. How will the story begin? _____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

4. What happens in the middle? _____

_____

_____

_____

5. How will the story end? _____

_____

_____