

Mixed Past Tenses

Mr. Bean at the Hospital

Instructions:

- Watch the video.
- Combine the two sentences into one sentence.
- Use a linking word such as when, while, because, so, and, etc. to link the sentences.
- Do not change the order of the clauses.
- Change the verb forms used if necessary (e.g. "He went..." to "He was going..." or "He had gone").

They couldn't open the ambulance doors. Mr. Bean parked behind it.

1. They couldn't open the ambulance doors because Mr. Bean had parked behind it.

The girl queued. Mr. Bean threw her doll.

2. While the girl was queuing, Mr. Bean threw her doll.

The men started fighting. Mr. Bean pinched one of the men's bottoms.

3. _____

The old man walked towards the chair. Mr. Bean ran around the table and sat down.

4. _____

Everyone saw Mr. Bean's hand in the teapot. They laughed.

5. _____

Mr. Bean tried to steal his ticket. The old man woke up.

6. _____

Mr. Bean turned the number display over. The receptionist talked on the phone.

7. _____

Mr. Bean sat down again. The woman let go of the teapot.

8. _____

Mr. Bean slept. He dropped his ticket on the floor.

9. _____

Mr. Bean got his hand stuck in a bin. He tried to get his ticket out of it.

10. _____