Reading Comprehension

Objective: To use context clues to identify the main idea in an informative text.

Bats

Bats are mammals. They have fur on their bodies like other mammals. They drink milk from their mothers. Baby bats are born live. Some people think that bats are birds, but they are not. Bats are flying mammals!

The main idea is:

Bats have fur on their bodies.

Bats are mammals.

LIVEWORKSHEETS