BEP 4 - UNIT 5 LESSON 2

Exercise 1: Write ONE word in each gap to complete the story.

Christina is _____ a TV programme about _____ with Sam. She learns that _____ are clever and amazing animals. They can _____ trees, talk and use _____ to get food. But there are not many _____ left in the wild. They are _____ because people are moving into their _____.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Exercise 2: Listen and match. Then write.

1 ☐

1990s: more than 100,000

Now: _____

2 ☐

100 years ago: about 100,000

Now: _____

3 ☐

100 years ago: about 90,000

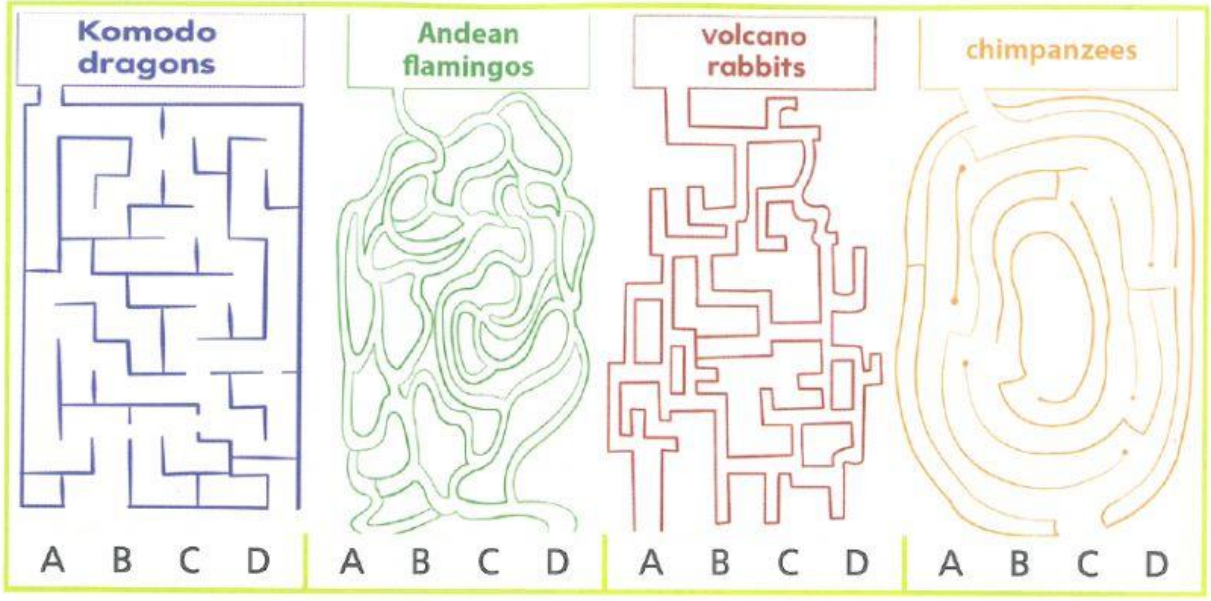

Now: _____

1. In the 1990s, there _____ more than 100,000 _____. But now, there _____ fewer than _____.

2. There _____ about 100,000 _____ 100 years ago. But now, there _____ only between _____ and _____. They are endangered because people are _____ them.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Exercise 3: Why are they endangered? Follow each maze and complete the dialogues. Do as the example.

A = Their habitat's polluted.
B = People are killing them.
C = People are moving into their habitat.
D = People are destroying their habitat.

1 A: Why are Komodo dragons endangered?

B: They're endangered B.

2 A: _____ are Andean flamingos endangered?

B: They're endangered _____.

3 A: _____ are volcano rabbits endangered?

B: They're endangered _____.

4 A: _____ are chimpanzees endangered?

B: They're endangered _____.

LIVEWORKSHEETS