

Name:

Class:

Rl.No:

Complete the passage choosing right words from the given below box.
Each blank is numbered. Write the correct word in your answer booklet.

| | | | | |
|----------|----------|------------|-------|----------|
| crashed, | tightly, | where, | sack, | slipped, |
| fields, | harder, | carelessly | | |

Type the answer in the given space.

The horse galloped out of the stable with the potter hanging like a(1) of rice on its back. Only the ropes kept him from crashing to the ground. The potter held(2) to the horse's neck and prayed to all the gods to save his life. After galloping through the quiet streets, the horse(3) through the city gates and raced across the open fields. It leapt over fences and streams, and began to head for the enemy's camp. When the potter realized(4) they were going, he tried(5) than ever to stop the horse.

Complete the passage choosing right words from the given below box.
Each blank is numbered. Write the correct word in your answer booklet.

| | | | |
|------------|----------|---------|--------|
| deserted , | letter , | peace , | when , |
| shaking , | tent , | country | |

Type the answer in the given space.

The frightened enemy soldiers fled. Their king was left by himself in his tent. Hurriedly he wrote a letter begging for(6) and apologizing for attacking the country. He left this(7) in the tent. Then he jumped on his horse and followed his soldiers.(8) the potter's brown horse reached the(9) camp it stopped. With(10) hands the potter untied his feet and fell to the ground. When he looked around he was surprised to find the camp empty. He looked in the king's tent and found the letter.

Converted by N. Sanjeeva Reddy