Mama's Kitchen

I went to Mama's Kitchen with my family to celebrate my grandmother's 80th birthday. It is a new restaurant and only opens at 5 p.m. It was quite crowded when we got there. Upon arrival, I was given a balloon and a colouring pad. Then, after a ten-minute wait, we were seated at a table.

Dad ordered my grandmother's favourite dish which is Hainanese chicken rice. He also ordered a bean sprout dish and a tofu dish to complement the chicken. For drinks, we had fragrant Pu-erh tea. The chicken was a dish to die for. It was juicy and tasty. The bean sprouts were crunchy and the tofu just melted in my mouth.
