Victorian Families

average		people who are employed to work at another person's home household		splash of bright fire are lit to entertain the public nursery		people who clean chimneys servants		areas of land where an open air market is held running water		typical; normal pump		a room in a house for the young children of the family coal mines		the people in a group who live together in a house cotton mills		a machine that is used to force liquid or gas chimney sweeps		liquid you can get by turning on a tap fairgrounds		places where carbon is dug out of the ground firework displays		factories where fiber is processed community		ancestry; parentage generation		incredible; not known make up the majority		grown up; raised from childhood origin		noted; everyone has heard of picked on		interracial diverse		people of a similar age E. U.		connected to the host community brought up		mocked; bullied integrated		comity; fellowship unheard of		various; different mixed race marriages		European Union household names		form plurality; be the largest in number

LIVEWORKSHEETS