

Victorian Families

average	people who are employed to work at another person's home household	splash of bright fire are lit to entertain the public nursery	people who clean chimneys servants	areas of land where an open air market is held running water	typical ; normal pump	a room in a house for the young children of the family coal mines	the people in a group who live together in a house cotton mills	a machine that is used to force liquid or gas chimney sweeps	liquid you can get by turning on a tap fairgrounds	places where carbon is dug out of the ground firework displays	factories where fiber is processed community	ancestry ; parentage generation	incredible; not known make up the majority	grown up; raised from childhood origin	noted; everyone has heard of picked on	interracial diverse	people of a similar age

E. U.	connected to the host community brought up	mocked; bullied integrated	comity; fellowship unheard of	various; different mixed race marriages	European Union household names	form plurality; be the largest in number