MAKING SPECULATIONS IN THE PAST ...

As a detective, you need to find clues and guess what happened on a crime scene.

You need to make "SPECULATIONS ON PAST EVENTS", that's what investigating is all about!

First, listen to the following video to better understand how it works:

Then look at the clues found on the crime scene and make deductions about what must, might or can't have happened. (Fill in the blanks using the verb within brackets)

Clue N°1:

A window is broken so …

The murderer _____ into the house through the window. (break)

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Clue N°2:

A cigarette end was found in the garden near the broken window so …

The murderer in the garden for a while (wait)

Clue N°3

The door was found locked so …

The murderer the house through the door. (enter)

Clue N°4:

The living room was in a mess so …

The murderer and the victim (fight).

Clue N°5:

The safe was open so …

The murderer the victim to steal his money. (kill)

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Clue N°6:

A bloody knife was found near the victim so …

The murderer the victim with this knife. It must be the murder weapon. (stab)

LIVEWORKSHEETS